April Forums

April 6th

Reserve Fund Q&A

Peace Church has historically spent money as we've received it, keeping only small amounts of money saved in designated funds. The Covid-19 pandemic showed us the necessity for emergency funds, just like a household keeps, to ensure our sustainability through the uncertainty of our changing world. Geof Wittrak and Tom Hystead will share the proposal, approved by the Finance Committee and Coordinating Council, for limited funds, invested prudently, to support our building, operations, and mission into the future. Bring your questions!

April 13th

Belonging & Community at Peace Church

The Shared Ministry Team just went through a name change and are now the Belonging & Community Team. Come to share your ideas, energy, and hopes for what it means to build the Beloved Community here at Peace Church.

Prism Organizing Network with Rev. Oby Ballinger

Prism is a statewide network committed to building power for LGBTQ+ equality by organizing people and resources across Minnesota. Bringing together faith communities, allies, and advocates from diverse traditions, Prism works to advance a shared vision of justice and inclusion for all. Rev. Oby Ballinger is the founder and lead organizer of Prism and is our guest preacher for the morning. He will facilitate a conversation on steps we can take to organize with our statewide allies.

Easter Breakfast and Egg Hunt!

Come eat breakfast with Peace families! Join us for breakfast at 9:30am on Easter morning, Sunday, April 20th in the Fellowship Hall. At 10:00am, we'll hold our annual Easter Egg Hunt, also in the Fellowship Hall. We'll have lots of eggs filled with non-food treats!

Notes from Pastor Corinne

Dear Peace Church,

The world is feeling difficult and scary for many of us right now. We need spiritual grounding when the ground beneath our feet is constantly shifting. For some, we also need ways to be connected and effective.

I recently committed to ISALAH's Clergy Organizing Cohort, running from June through November of this year. Pastors and imams from across the state will come together for two in-person and four virtual sessions, where we will learn basic organizing skills like building strong teams, power analysis, and developing leaders within our congregations. We are hoping to have at least five Duluth clergy joining the cohort so we can build connections and resilience here in Duluth.

Organizing, in its simplest definition, is connecting people to build power. It's something that every one of us can do. Our 1:1 in-reach was part of that - and we will be holding another one of these 1:1 trainings on Tuesday, April 29th, 6-7:30pm. If you are curious about how to connect deeply with people and build solidarity through our shared stories and values, we'd love to see you there. If you went through the first training, we still invite you to this second one: the more practice, the better, in my experience! If childcare would be helpful for you to attend, please let us know and we will make those arrangements.

And if you're feeling hopeless, broken, and afraid, as I have heard from many of you that you are, please know that you are not alone. You are loved. You are held by this community and by God. We will remember on Easter Sunday the proclamation by Mary Magdalene, downtrodden and dismissed by society, who proclaims, "I have seen the Lord." Your witness to God's presence - or God's absence, if that is. your current experience - is more than enough.

With Love, Pastor Corinne

Moderator's Report

Dear members and friends of Peace Church,

The Coordinating Council met on Tuesday, March 19th, 2025. We received, reviewed, and approved reports from committees and Pastor Corinne.

Pastor Corinne reported that the Gabriel Fund is out of money due in large part to the financial needs incurred during the COVID epidemic. The Gabriel Fund is a collaboration of six congregations in the Hillside area, the collective goal is to help support families and to work for social and economic justice by providing information, referral, and financial assistance to people in need. A call is going out to the other congregations who contribute to help replenish the fund and Peace members and friends are encouraged to consider contributing.

Jessica Olson reported that a grant application has been submitted to the Duluth Community Foundation to improve the grounds around Peace church for our members and the community to enjoy.

Wonderful news was shared by Pastor Corinne regarding Another Door. The waitlist for homeless youth in St. Louis County is almost empty. With six youth in residence currently, and many more already transitioned to permanent housing, the expanded shelter is meeting a clear need.

The council ended our meeting with a meaningful conversation lead by Pastor Corinne regarding: experiences and feelings we and are loved ones are having at this moment, where we find hope, and Peace church needs and hope.

I end with thoughts of Stephen Dando who recently passed away. Stephen was an important member of the council. He was an amazing person who will be greatly missed by many. His gentle demeanor, thoughtful insight, and spiritual presence on the council will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to Stephen's wife Lori, his family, and to all those who Stephen was an important part of their life.

Mike Swanoski, Moderator, Coordinating Council

Peace News

Meet the New Kids' Club Facilitator

April Knight is the new Kids' Club facilitator for Wednesday nights. Her first visit to Peace church was on a memorable Palm Sunday on April 10th, 2022 and she quickly became acquainted with the women of Peace through an overnight women's conference held soon after. She became a member two years later due to her skill at procrastination. Formally a pediatric occupational therapist, she is excited to work with children in such a relaxed and playful environment! She currently works as a camp RN for an all boys adventure camp in the summers in Western NC. She is often joined in church activities by her supportive spouse, Brad Davis, when she asks him nicely.

The Peace Church Memorial Prairie

The memorial prairie garden is more than just a picturesque spot. It is a sacred space - a living testament to loss, love, and the enduring promise of renewal. The prairie has a long history and serves as an example of endurance and regeneration. Initiated in 1997 by Doug and Holly Bowen-Bailey, the garden emerged from their profound grief after the loss of two pregnancies. They envisioned a sanctuary to honor the memory of their children and others from the community. With the church's support, the hillside was transformed into a prairie. Currently a plaque within the church lists 38 children who have been memorialized. Also, a paper birch was planted in 2008 in memory of Leigh McMullen who died tragically in a car accident. This space provides a quiet place for all of us to share in our collective grief.

Mary Martin, a long-time Peace member who died in 2015 was a key advocate for the prairie's maintenance and growth. As part of the prairie's care, Peace began conducting controlled burns in 1999 and has been doing so intermittently for the past 25 years. Starting this spring, prescribed burns will be conducted every 3-5 years. The prairie now flourishes with various native plants, including Big Bluestem, Golden Alexander, False Sunflower, Black-eyed Susan, and Wild Bergamot and in 2015 was designated as an official Monarch Waystation.

In the coming weeks stay tuned to the weekly announcements for updates on this spring's burn date. We hope to know a week in advance so everyone interested can witness the transformation.

New Addition to the Bathrooms!

We have added drawers in each bathroom with hygiene products including diapers, wipes, period products, hair ties, lint rollers, and Tide stain sticks. Please use what you need! If you notice we are running low, please let Bri know in the office.

Children, Youth and Families

Hello Peace Families,

We are just around the corner from the Resurrection. I don't know about you, but sometimes in my own life, full of responsibilities and the worries of the day-to-day – that's what I want to jump to – the happy ending of the story. The part where everything works out okay. The part where things that were uncertain get figured out.

Our Lenten series has been challenging me to take the time to exist in the messy in-between of the story, where most of life happens. A location that is defined by nuance and mystery. A location where the answers to questions are in process.

There are two artefacts that I stumbled across last week that are floating in my mind as I ponder that process.

One was a quote by Barry Taylor, the once road manager of the band AC/DC who became a (somewhat controversial) pastor who said: "God is the name of the blanket we put over the mystery to give it a shape."

The other is a poem by Francis Bernardone, also known as St. Francis of Assisi, a figure at once beloved and scandalous for his vows of poverty, extreme embrace of joy, and connection to the natural world.

*I once spoke to my friend, an old squirrel, about the Sacraments –
he got so excited and ran into a hollow in his tree and came back holding some acorns, an owl feather,
and a ribbon he had found.
And I just smiled and said, "Yes, dear, you understand:
Everything imparts
God's grace."*

I'm still rolling these artefacts around in my mind, letting them tumble into each other, to see how they connect. But I think it has something to do with challenging myself to peek under the blanket, to find the everyday objects and moments of treasure that connect me to the mystery, to the grace. A mystery and grace we see clearly in the Resurrection but can struggle to find in the process of getting there.

As your family moves through Holy week, my prayer is you will be confronted, implicated, and astounded by moments of grace, of mystery. Perhaps, it's an acorn, feather, and piece of ribbon found in a child's pocket when doing laundry. Perhaps it's a kind word or hug when it is most needed. Perhaps it is a glimmer of justice in a world that can be cruelly unjust.

As for Resurrection, we will celebrate that together, knowing that it's both an end and a beginning to these stories that we shape over and over again, year after year, to explore the mystery of God and of our life in community together.

Below are some activities over the month of April and beyond that will help your family connect at Peace and find joy. Please let me know if you would like to volunteer to work with our children and youth. We are always happy to see you whenever you can be here! I encourage you to reach out to me at amanda@peaceucc.org with any questions, feedback, or ideas.

Wishing you Love in Action, Amanda

Also check out the Arts & Crafts & Social Emotional Learning (SEL) table by the Water Fountain, with resources for children and families.

CHUM News

CHUM is "People of faith working together to provide basic necessities, foster stable lives, and organize for a just and compassionate community."

Services that Chum provides are critical to so many northlanders in need. Here is a synopsis of what Chum does and where your donations help. Information is from their website.

Street Outreach

Chum's Street Outreach program in Duluth serve's those who cannot or will not stay in shelter. Chum's Street Outreach Staff work with people who are living on the street, in the woods, or in other places unfit for human habitation. Chum's Street Outreach works with about 150-200 people a year. Most are experiencing long-term or chronic homelessness (defined by HUD as homeless with a disability). Chum staff help them meet their basic needs, stabilize their housing, and reduce their contact with the police. We advocate for and with them when they are involved with law enforcement, corrections, health care and other public systems.

Shelter

When people think of Chum, the Chum center is usually what comes to mind. This is a homeless shelter in Duluth where people can stay and get help. When someone is staying at the shelter they have access to all of the resources Chum has available. Chum provides Emergency Shelter services in Duluth. In this same building, they have a Congregate Shelter that provides dormitory-style shelter for single adults. This is crucial to providing basic needs for survival in the harsh weather in Duluth.

Food Shelf

The Chum Food Shelf located at 120 N 1st Ave West is open Wednesdays and Fridays starting at 10:00am until 12:00pm or until supplies run out. Individuals can come through our line and receive a food box full of healthy foods.

On Mondays, food is distributed at Our Saviors Lutheran Church, 4831 Grand Ave, from 10am until 12:00pm or until supplies run out.

In Duluth, our community's need for the Chum food shelf has only been growing. Chum does everything they can to provide for people in need. The community's help is needed as well. It takes a village.

Food Shelves and Banks have been affected by the changes at the federal level. Your donations are more critical than usual. Food donations can be put in the basket outside the Peace UCC office. They are delivered to Chum. Thank you!

Nominations

Nominations for Church Council

Are you interested in learning more about what goes on "behind the scenes" at Peace Church? Do you like being involved in deep discussions and decision-making? Do you value Peace Church and its mission in our community? If any of these ring true for you, please know that the Coordinating Council is currently seeking nominations for the 2024-2025 council. You can contact any of the council members for more information. Additionally, prospective council members are encouraged to attend a council meeting prior to the June congregational meeting when the new council is elected.

Please email the office at office@peaceucc.org for nomination forms and return them to the office by Sunday, May 19th. The open positions for the coming year are: Vice Moderator (3-year commitment, as the Vice Moderator moves into the Moderator role, then serves a final year as Past Moderator), Secretary, Christian Education, Christian Service, and At-Large (all 2-year terms) If you wish to nominate someone, please contact them first to confirm they are willing to serve in this way. Note that because there are only 5 positions open, not all nominated names will be elected to the council.

Council members generally sign on for a two-year term, and commit to meeting at least monthly to conduct the business of the church. Monthly meeting agendas include reviews of monthly financials, committee reports, and pastoral reports. The council will also be engaged in the coming year in supporting the transition team and pastoral search committee.

Holy Week

Palm Sunday: Sunday, April 13th, 8:30am and 10:30am

Jesus doesn't instigate his own parade. Instead, just his quiet presence alone inspires the multitude to shout out and praise God. When the religious leaders try to silence the crowd, Jesus tells them that the noise level isn't the point—even the stones would cry out if they were silent. It takes wisdom to know when our voice is needed and when it's just noise. Join us for a worship service that is both loud and reflective, with palms at both services.

Maundy Thursday: Thursday, April 17th, 7pm

In his final hours, Jesus redefines power through acts of humility, including sharing a final meal with his closest friends and those who will soon betray him. After breaking bread, the disciples argue about who is the greatest, but Jesus tells them that the greatest must be the least and the leader must be the servant, turning their hierarchy on its head. According to Jesus, humility is powerful, and real power is shown through humility. This service will look a little different than years past, as we gather around tables for handwashing and a more robust communion meal.

Beach Vigil:

Saturday, April 19th, 5pm Park Point

Come join us for an Easter Eve beach service on Park Point. We'll gather at the Tot Lot beach area at 5:00pm. Enjoy a bonfire - there's usually 15-20 of us, all ages welcome. Singing, scripture, prayer, communion. After the service, we roast

Help needed for preparing Easter breakfast

Youth and older Elementary Families! We need your help on Saturday Morning, April 19th, 10:00am to help our fabulous kitchen crew prep food for the Sunday Easter Breakfast, and to fill and hide Easter Eggs for the Egg Hunt! On Sunday Morning, we need Youth to help serve Breakfast too!

Easter Sunday:

Sunday, April 20th, 8:30am and 10:30am,

Grief is a healthy response to Jesus' death and a valid way to enter worship on Easter morning. And yet, the women at the empty tomb are given hope amidst their mourning. The other disciples don't believe the women's message, but Peter, living in the in-between of grief and hope, runs to the tomb to see for himself. Grieving doesn't have to make us hopeless. Hope can compel us to take action when we are deep in grief. Celebrate the hope and promise of the resurrection with us on Easter morning.

Good Friday: Friday, April 18th, 7pm Pilgrim Congregational Church, 2310 E 4th St

We will celebrate a collaborative Good Friday service with our friends from Pilgrim Congregational Church and Glen Avon Presbyterian Church.

Children, Join the Palm Sunday Parade!

Sunday, April 13th meet up in the Narthex at 10:20am to get your palm leaves and handheld instruments. We will process into the 10:30am worship service together to remember and celebrate Jesus's entrance into Jerusalem and the beginning of Holy Week.

Easter Breakfast and Egg Hunt!

Come eat breakfast with Peace families!

Join us for breakfast at 9:30am on Easter morning, Sunday, April 20th, in the Fellowship Hall.

At 10:00am, we'll hold our annual Easter Egg Hunt (also in the fellowship hall). We'll have lots of eggs filled with goodies - it's always a lot of fun!

Easter Raffle

Peter Rabbit (or maybe Mopsy or Flopsy) is coming to the Easter breakfast. This rabbit will go home with one of our families, or maybe a grandparent or aunt or uncle! Raffle tickets are $5 each and can be purchased in the church office beginning April 6th. Drawing will be held at Easter breakfast, April 20th, during the 9:30 hour. Soft, pink, and close to 21 inches when seated—this rabbit is looking for a home! Raffle funds will support the PK Fund, funding this year's youth trip to Pine Ridge Reservation, South Dakota.
